TESTIMONIALS

“

Our experience in building a home from another state could have been difficult and challenging. We are happy to say the entire experience was positive and pleasant due to Daugaard Construction and his entire team. Devin is Honest, Caring and Creative; he understood our vision and executed it, that was of great value to us. Anytime we had questions or concerns he was always available. We were impressed by the professional of his team who offered advice and suggestions that made us feel like they treated our home as their own which was special. The process reaffirmed we made the right decision and would highly recommend Daugaard Construction.

“

We selected Daugaard Construction to build our custom home in the Powder Horn community, Sheridan, WY. Owner Devin Daugaard worked with us to modify plans for our home and provide a budget that met our requirements. Devin was always available to discuss progress and to provide constructive solutions when changes were necessary. He has high standards for detail and workmanship and we are very satisfied with our home. He has continued to provide prompt support after project completion. We enjoyed working with Devin and would build with him again.

“

Daugaard Construction did an outstanding job on the execution of [the] project, they were there overseeing the daily progress and making any changes necessary. Devin does an amazing job ordering materials in a timely manner and monitoring the payments and the budget for the project. Daugaard Construction built my home within the budget and time frame originally agreed on. I would use Daugaard Construction on any future building project.
